Board of Supervisors Rejects Rezoning of Venetian Village Area

Turn Down Plan for Shop- ping, Industrial Region On Grand Avenue

The board of supervisors turned down the requests for rezoning on Grand ave. at Venetian Village to permit a business area, an industrial area, and a tavern.

Where the zoning board approved the change, the county board either didn't martial enough votes to ratify it or refused outright to accept the zoning board's recommendation. The former was true of the tavern.

Frank Brancato, president of the West Millmore Community Center, one area of the Venetian Village subdivision, resigned his office after members objected to his approval of the zoning changes as not representing the organization.

The residents also voted down the proposal to incorporate West Millmore as a village in a post card poll, 152 to 105, with 6 undecided.

Earl B. Bruner is taking Brancato's place as president, and Clarence Reed was elected secretary in the place of Mrs. Walter Von Stoecken, who like Brancato resigned.

In announcing reasons for his resignation Brancato said that if he had to be gagged in his private opinion while serving as president he would rather not be president.

"I believe that the background of any community organization in this area is going to have to be industrial," said Brancato. He referred to the opposition to the establishing of factories in the Lake Villa areas so that people of the community can find work at home.

Involved mainly in the rezoning petition was the Lindhurst subdivision on the north side of Grand ave., although the tavern would have been located on the south side. N. H. Engle and Sons are the subdividers and were interested in two of the rezoning petitions.

Girl Scout Exhibit Planned By Leaders Of Lakeside Council

There were many leaders present February 10 at an important meeting held by the Lakeside Council of Girl Scouts at the Gages Lake Wood land school.

The main issue on the agenda concerned the Annual Lakeside Council Girl Scout Exhibit which is to be held on May 1 at the Round Lake Consolidated school.

The program will have as its theme, "Look Wider Still," and it will consist of such entertainment as dramatics, music and dancing.

It is very important that all troops wishing to take part in the program please contact Mrs. Lester Hribar at Antioch 582-M-1, or Mrs. Catherine Trowbridge, Grayslake 3-6181 (after 5:30) before April 17.

Girl Scout Week will take place starting March 7 through March 12. Originally it was celebrated in October to commemorate the birth of Juliette Low, founder of girl scouting. It has been changed to commemorate the founding of Girl Scouting in the United States. This year the theme for Girl Scout Week will be, "Know Your Neighbors and Know Your Nation."

On Sunday, March 12 all Girl Scouts will be encouraged to wear their uniforms to church or their place of worship.

Before the meeting was concluded the leaders learned about the seven basic rules of camping from Mrs. Catherine Trowbridge, and then divided into groups to learn and practice tying knots useful in camping, emergency first aid, use of the compass, and making bed rolls for outdoor camping.

Roy E. Johnson of Lake Villa writes from Jupiter, Fla., that several of his friends enjoying their vacation in Florida recently formed a fishing party. They were Mr. Johnson, Louie Nielsen, Barney Shunnesson, Charles Smith, Sr., Charles Smith, Jr., and John Markham of Antioch, and Joe Signorello of Channel Lake.

Three sail fish were caught, the largest one by Roy Johnson, one by Charles Smith, Jr., and the third by Louie Nielsen. Their catch also included several large dolphins, some bonita and red snappers.

Farmers Back Plan to Add Delinquent Personal Property Taxes to Regular Annual Tax Statement

Howard Bonner of Lake Villa was re-elected director of the Lake County Farm Bureau from Dist. 7, comprising Antioch and Lake Villa townships at the annual meeting of the organization held Saturday at Warren Township High school, Grayslake.

The board of directors will meet this evening to elect officers. Following a resolution passed by the Farm Bureau at this meeting county authorities agreed to add delinquent personal property taxes to new tax bills.

The farmers called upon the voters to vote for those township candidates who will agree to collect personal taxes. The resolution also said:

"We recommend that all assessors carefully appraise and assess a property according to its value for its intended use. We ask that all assessors give the tax payers an equitable assessment on both real and personal property."

The farmers also recommended that some plan or provision be put into effect to aid school financing by new real estate subdivisions. They suggest that land be set aside for schools, and a certain portion of the lot sale price be put into a school expansion fund.

The children arrive at school before the tax money does," the farmers said.

The bureau offered to cooperate with other volunteer groups in forming a sheriff's auxiliary to help handle crowds in emergencies.

Antioch Veterinarians Appointed Deputies in Plan to Avoid Rabies

New Law Requires All Dogs Not on Leash or Housed Be Vaccinated

Drs. R. A. Ripley, C. R. Tossey, and G. W. Jensen, Antioch Veterinarians, have been appointed by Dr. Albert Galen of Barrington, county rabies inspector, to serve as deputies in the campaign to make Lake county safe from rabies.

The new state law which provides for a penalty for violation after June 1 requires that all dogs not on leash or confined must be inoculated.

The Lake County Veterinarians association which met with Dr. Galen Monday evening at Barrington, agreed on a fee of $3 for the vaccinating services.

A county dog catcher will be selected, it is said, and all dogs running at large and not bearing a red tag, the veterinarians' sign of vaccination, will be disposed of.

Dr. Galen said that a quarantine is not necessary now in Lake county as was necessary in Cook county where there were so many cases of rabies. The only case so far in Lake county has been at Deerfield where the village passed a law requiring vaccination.

Antioch is not badly plagued by stray dogs as some villages, but there is always the danger, and the dog owners will want to protect their dogs from the disease as much as they will want to protect the public.

A talk by Miss Jean Thomas, Waukegan, on the "Meaning of Americanism," and by Cmdr. Gordon Thomas of the Homer Dahlinger post, Waukegan, on the Crusade for Freedom, were highlights of the meeting of the Antioch unit, American Legion Auxiliary last Friday evening.

Cmdr. Thomas showed a film on Radio Free Europe.

The two Waukegan guests were accompanied by Cesar Yatco and Leandro Rojan, two students from the Philippines who are attending Northwestern University, Evanston, and were guests of the Thomas family during the "Community House-party Weekend," sponsored by the Waukegan Y. W. C. A.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by Mrs. Lucy Himens and her committee.

The next meeting of the Antioch unit will be a pot luck birthday party to which the post members and their wives and auxiliary members and their husbands are invited.

A musical program will be given by students of Antioch Township High school under the direction of Louis F. Chenette. The potluck supper will be served at 6:30 p. m. and cards will follow the supper program.

Richard Meyer made 14 points for Antioch and Hunziker was high for Grayslake with 16 points. Harry Evans had 10 points for Antioch. The Antioch Freshmen have won 8 and lost 2. They play Palatine next Monday at Palatine.

O. A. F. Starts in 1954

"he board had attempted to give the employees the advantage of the earlier date, but must now make the payments start on January 1954. The village must also supply the names of the employees.

Stakes High for Game At Palatine Tomorrow; Zion Here on Saturday

Sequoits Win Easily from Bensenville, Grayslake; Sophs Win Too

Stakes will be high when the Antioch High basketball team meets Palatine High on the Pirate floor tomorrow evening.

A loss to the Cook county team may dim the Sequoit chance to retain the Northwest Conference crown, especially should Ela-Vernon fail to turn the trick at Grant, now out in front in the race.

Antioch won undisputed possession of second place over last weekend by defeating Bensenville at Bensenville 75 to 58 and Grayslake here 64 to 46.

But the Grant Bulldogs again pulled a victory out of the bag in a dramatic finish, defeating Palatine 46 to 43 Thursday night and thereby averting a four-way tie for first place in conference competition. Palatine is now out as a first place contender, but will seek to spoil Antioch's chances.

The Sequoits went out in front in the first quarter against the Bensenville Bisons Thursday night and never were headed.

Ben Floyd was high scorer with 23 points with Mike Haviland and Larry Lass both chalking up 15.

In the preliminary the Antioch frosh-soph team won over the Bensenville underclassmen 56 to 39 and laid claim to third place in the conference standing.

Antioch 64-Grayslake 46

The Antioch varsity blanked the Grayslake Rams in the first quarter of Saturday night's game to assume a 14 point lead and then coasted to an easy 64-46 victory. The defensive playing of Larry Lass and Jack Palmer in limiting Grayslake's high scoring Jay Hook to four field goals and a total of 12 points was outstanding.

Mike Haviland was high point man for the Sequoits, and Ronnie Christen was high for the Rams with 13 points.

Zion Here Saturday

Antioch will step outside her own conference Saturday night in playing Zion-Benton of the North Suburban conference. Zion has a third-place standing in her conference with seven victories and five losses. Based on the caliber of that conference with Barrington as top team in present standings, Zion-Benton should be tough opposition for the Sequoits.

After this week's games are out of the way, only one conference game remains and that will be with Grant on Friday, Feb. 26. Regardless of the outcome of play this week, the game with Grant here will be the season's climax so far as Antioch is concerned.

The "Time-Lag" Bill

Senator Bricker, chairman of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, forecasts that the "time-lag" bill will be passed by this Congress. He added that he doesn't know of any serious opposition to it.

The bill, which is formally known as S. 1461, is designed to correct a gross inequality in our system of establishing the rates charged by railroads and other carriers which are under Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction. At present, if the railroads find that higher wages and other unavoidable costs have made current rates inadequate, application is made to the ICC for increases. The catch is that, as a rule, many months go by before ICC completes its hearings and investigations and renders a decision. In late years, the rails have ultimately been given all or most of the increases requested, as the ICC found them eminently fair and necessary. But for protracted periods of time the carriers have been forced to operate with insufficient revenues—and the loss to this absolutely essential industry has been extremely damaging.

Suppose that this was the case with your own business. Suppose you were legally forced to run for months after months selling goods or services at prices which returned you no profit, and perhaps even resulted in a net loss. That is exactly what has happened to the regulated carriers time and time again.

The time-lag bill will substantially reduce the time required between the filing of rate increase requests and action by the ICC. In the interest of the national welfare, it is to be hoped Senator Bricker is right.

Those Good Old Days

Now and then we read nostalgic accounts of commodity prices of the past. Reproductions of old advertisements and menus are particularly impressive in this regard. For, as a rule, the prices quoted are almost unbelievably low in the light of present levels.

It's only human to sigh with regret for the passing of those "good old days", and to resent the living costs we must cope with now. But there is another side to the coin—and a very important side. The fact is that when prices are related to current wages and salaries and family purchasing power, it is found that in most cases we're getting a better deal now than in the past.

Take a commodity which practically every American family buys and consumes every day—meat. Like everything else, it costs more than it did 10 or 20 or other given number of years ago. But, according to Department of Agriculture figures, we have been spending a smaller percentage of our disposable income for meat than we did in 1941. And last year, believe it or not, the percentage of disposable income so spent was the smallest in modern history, save during war-time when widespread black markets resulting from government controls made really accurate and reliable price comparisons impossible.

So far as prices are concerned, the "good old days" weren't nearly so good as many believe.

A Bad Tax

One thing can be said with virtual safety about taxes—once a tax is adopted, even though it is supposed to be temporary or of an emergency nature, it is extraordinarily difficult to get rid of it.

The federal gasoline tax is a fine case in point. It was first enacted 20 years ago, purely on a temporary basis. And what has happened it that it has been periodically increased—instead of reduced or eliminated—and has reached the present level of two cents a gallon. There was hope that it would die this April—but the President has asked that it be continued.

The President's position is based upon the need for maintaining government revenues. But, aside from that, the federal gasoline tax is a very bad one. Gasoline taxation is properly a field for the states only, under laws which allocate all the revenues to road work and prevent diversion to other purposes. According to The Oil Daily, the federal tax now brings in close to $1,000,000,000 a year, while federal appropriations to the states for highways are only $550,000,000 a year. In other words, close to half of the tax is being siphoned off. The motorist does the paying—but he doesn't get his money's worth.

One can understand Mr. Eisenhower's position. The federal gas tax should be repealed and this source of revenue left to the states where it belongs.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Trying to argue learned-like that socialism is in the cards and can win the pot, is on thin ice when you look at gasoline. Just with gasoline alone it is like shootin' fish to deduct that the folks in countries like France and Italy—both being bogged down in socialism—don't have the wherewithal to do many of the things that we do here on our side of the briny.

In France the average use of gas per person in 1953 was 31 gallons—we averaged 320 gallons. Let the guy who argues that Govt. ownership or City ownership or State ownership is the real McCoy, let him ask himself if he would choose to cut down to one gallon or less versus the 10 or more he now gets here when he sashays into the service station. That's Socialism—one gallon versus 10—because France and Italy do the very things that hold 'em back and down. These two countries try to run the railroads, the telephones, the gas and electric plants.

And to put a moral into this brilliant essay—we are up to our collar button and Adam's apple our own selves in many town an State and Federal ventures 'hat are not a lick less socialist than western Europe. End of lecture.

Mrs. John Grady Speaks Before Methodist Club

Mrs. John Grady spoke on "Avoiding Emotional Difficulties in Children" at the meeting of the Sunday Evening club of the Methodist church Monday at the Warren Polley home.

She serves as counselor at the Zion Grade school and described the troubled child as one who is merely unhappy. Mrs. Grady said that the difficulty usually simmers down to lack of affection, inability to succeed at something, or lack of group acceptance. By case histories, she showed that the troubled child doesn't necessarily come from a home of obvious neglect.

Violin music by Ray Westlund preceded the talk in which he was accompanied by his wife. The Westlunds also directed devotions and recreation.

Members of the Sunday Evening club will go as a body to this evening's church service of the United Evangelistic Mission to be held at 8 p. m. in the Methodist church.

Your Income Tax

Wife Not a Dependent of Husband

A woman came to the Internal Revenue Office the other day for help in preparation of her income tax return. She said that her husband is the wage earner of the family, and that last summer she had a part time job from which she earned $400 and from which tax was withheld. Her question was: "could she file a separate return in order to claim the refund of the withholding on her wages while her husband claimed her exemption on his return?" The answer to her question was "no," since for income tax purposes a wife is not in the same category as a dependent. The woman objected and pointed out that her husband always considered her as a dependent that he supported.

Choice of Filing Income

A married woman with gross income of less than $600 has the option of (1) including such income in a joint return with her husband, in which the exemptions of both spouses are claimed, or (2) filing a separate return for the purpose of claiming a refund of any tax withheld, while her husband also files a separate return, declaring only his own income, in which case he may not claim his wife as an exemption.

The taxpayers may exercise the option which will result in the lesser tax. If they choose to file jointly, her income, however small, must be included in the joint return. If no tax was withheld, she is not required to file a return; but if she does not, her husband may not claim her as an exemption.

The husband may not file a separate return declaring his income only, and take exemptions for both himself and his wife while his wife files separately in order to get a refund, as indicated in the second choice above. In this procedure, some husbands have claimed that the wife is a dependent. However, for the purpose of the federal income tax law, the wife is never a dependent of the husband, and he is entitled to claim her exemption only by reason of their marital status. He may claim her as an exemption (1) if a separate return is filed and the wife has no income, or (2) if a joint return is filed by the husband and wife.

SEED CLEANING AND TREATING

For maximum yield, seed grains require a good job of treating, in addition to cleaning, under the average conditions in this area. The treatment is more important than the cleaning.

We are equipped to thoroughly clean and treat your grains with DuPont's Ceresan M as recommended by the state. We can also Gro-Coat your legume seeds. To avoid delay or disappointment, make an appointment now for doing the job while you wait.

The sensational Buick Century is available for 1954 in a full line of models, including the completely new all-steel 4-door, 6-passenger Estate Wagon shown here.

It has sports-car smartness and sports-car snap.

It combines sports-car compactness with Buick roominess—six-passenger big.

It gets you brilliant performance. It gets you more economy. It gets you added safety.

At the wheel of a Buick CENTURY, you find getaway more responsive, cruising more pleasant, hill-climbing so nimble you feel you're on the level. Your engine is normally working at just a fraction of its capacity. You have a tremendous power reservoir to call on in sudden emergencies.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

CHECKS

ONE OF OUR TWO MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES, THE REPUBLICAN, WAS BORN 100 YEARS AGO, MARCH 20, 1854, IN A LITTLE WHITE SCHOOLHOUSE THAT STILL STANDS IN RIPON, WISCONSIN.

CHECKS AND BALANCES IN OUR POLITICAL LIFE, AS WELL AS IN OUR GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATION, ARE PROVIDED BY THE TWO-PARTY SYSTEM. THROUGH THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES, THE PEOPLE HAVE HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS THEIR WILL, "FOR OR AGAIN", IN THE GIVE-AND-TAKE THAT IS AN ESSENTIAL SAFEGUARD OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

'This Was Illinois' Capitol—200 Years Ago'

Bishops Charles L. Street of Chicago, Charles A. Clough of Springfield and William L. Essex of Quincy are among those to attend a special session in the restored 18th century Capitol at Williamsburg, Virginia, during the assembly of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church at Williamsburg November 9 through 13. If the Bishops had lived 200 years ago this would have been their Capitol, for the Virginia colony included the territory which is now Illinois. Here Thomas Jefferson introduced his bill for freedom of religion, Patrick Henry made his fiery "If-This-Be-Treason" speech and George Mason saw passed unanimously his Bill of Rights, parent of the Federal Bill of Rights.

Completes Training

Kenneth Buchta, 17, son of Leo Buchta of Antioch, is completing his air force basic military training at Lackland Air Force base near San Antonio, Tex. His basic military training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work.

Car Batters Rowboats

A car driven by Thomas J. O'Neill of Venetian Village, got out of control and hurtled off Rte. 173 into the Fox river bank at 2 a. m., Saturday. It ended up amid several battered rowboats, after damaging a wood boathouse, according to Police Chief Walter Scott.

The Antioch Rescue squad gave first aid to O'Neill. Both sides of his car were badly damaged.
